

Bay Area Latin America Forum Fall 2017

Aila Matanock

Electing Peace: From Civil Conflict to Political Participation

Aila M. Matanock is Assistant Professor of Political Science at UC Berkeley. Her research addresses international intervention, civil conflict, and weak states.

Wednesday, October 25, 4:00 pm
223 Moses Hall

Lauren Markham

The Far Away Brothers:
Two Young Migrants and the Making of an American Life

Lauren Markham's work has appeared in The Guardian, The New Yorker online, and on "This American Life." She works at a high school for immigrant youth in Oakland.

Friday, October 27, 12:00 pm
223 Moses Hall

Rebecca Herman

When Conflicting Racisms Converge:
Race, Nation and Segregation in the Panama Canal Zone

Rebecca Herman is Assistant Professor of History at UC Berkeley. Her research and writing examine Latin American history in a global context.

Monday, November 6, 4:00 pm
CLAS Conference Room, 2334 Bowditch Street

Priscilla Dorella

Octavio Paz, Mexican Politics, and the Media

Priscila Dorella is an adjunct professor at Universidade Federal de Viçosa in Brazil and a visiting scholar at UC Berkeley. Her work addresses intellectual history and the media.
Please note: this talk will be in Spanish.

Wednesday, November 15, 4:00 pm
CLAS Conference Room, 2334 Bowditch Street

CENTER FOR LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, BERKELEY

CLAS.BERKELEY.EDU