

Bay Area Latin America Forum • Fall 2014

Julianna Deardorff

Pubertal Development and Adolescent Risk Trajectories in Salinas, California and Santiago, Chile

Julianna Deardorff is an associate professor at UC Berkeley's School of Public Health.

Monday, September 22

Jeffrey Q. Chambers

Amazon Forest Interactions With Earth's Climate System

Jeffrey Q. Chambers is a faculty scientist in the Climate Sciences Department at Lawrence Berkeley National Lab and an associate professor of Geography at UC Berkeley.

Monday, October 6

Lee Riley

Slum Health in Brazil: Disparity From the Cell to the Street

Lee Riley is a professor of Public Health and the head of division of Infectious Disease and Vaccinology at UC Berkeley.

Monday, October 27

Brad DeLong

Understanding the Latin American Economy, 1850-1950

Brad DeLong is a professor of Economics at UC Berkeley and a research associate at the National Bureau of Economic Research.

Monday, November 3

\ All events to be held from 12:00 – 1:15 pm.
For locations and more, see clas.berkeley.edu*

CENTER FOR LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES • UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, BERKELEY
CLAS.BERKELEY.EDU

Photo by Joe Parks.