

CINE LATINO • FALL 2018

ZAMA

Directed by Lucrecia Martel (Argentina, 2018)

After a disappointing career of being passed over, an official in colonial Latin America joins the hunt for a dangerous bandit. 115 minutes. Spanish with English subtitles.

Wednesday, October 3, 7:00 pm

A FANTASTIC WOMAN

Directed by Sebastián Lelio (Chile, 2017)

Winner of the 2018 Academy Award for Best Foreign Film

When her older lover suddenly dies, a young transgender singer in Chile must claim her place and confront his family and society. 100 minutes. Spanish with English subtitles.

Wednesday, October 10, 7:00 pm

TRAFFICKED IN AMERICA

Directed by Daffodil Altan and Andrés Cediél (USA, 2018)

This documentary from Berkeley's Investigative Reporting Program follows a group of Guatemalan teenagers forced to work at an Ohio egg farm, exposing the system that profits from them. 54 minutes. English and Spanish with subtitles.

Wednesday, November 7, 7:00 pm

NEIGHBORING SOUNDS

Directed by Kléber Medonça (Brazil, 2012)

Hiring a private security firm uncovers the tensions in a prosperous Recife neighborhood dominated by an aging patriarch. 131 minutes. Portuguese with English subtitles.

Wednesday, November 14, 7:00 pm

All screenings will be in 160 Kroeber Hall.

All Cine Latino screenings are free and open to the public. No ticket required.

For trailers and more information, please visit our website or social media.

CENTER FOR LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES • UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, BERKELEY

CLAS.BERKELEY.EDU

Daniela Vega in "A Fantastic Woman."
(Image courtesy of Sony Pictures Classic.)